Male Reproductive System Note-Taking Guide

Male Reproductive Anatomy

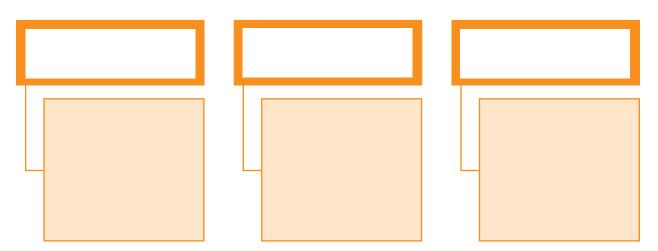

- 1. Sperm and testosterone are produced in the testes, which are in a muscular sac known as the ______.
- 2. Within the testes are the ______ tubules, where millions of sperm are produced daily.
- 3. ______ is the term used for the process of sperm production and maturation, which takes approximately 68 days.
- 4. The tube responsible for storing sperm until they mature and carrying sperm to the vas deferens during sexual arousal is the ______.
- 5. The ______ tube transports mature sperm to the urethra.
- 6. The tube that carries urine from the bladder to the outside of the body and that ejaculates semen from the penis is the ______.
- 7. The ______ is the male organ for sexual intercourse.
- 8. Complete the circles that follow to show the path sperm travel beginning from the testes.

Male Reproductive System

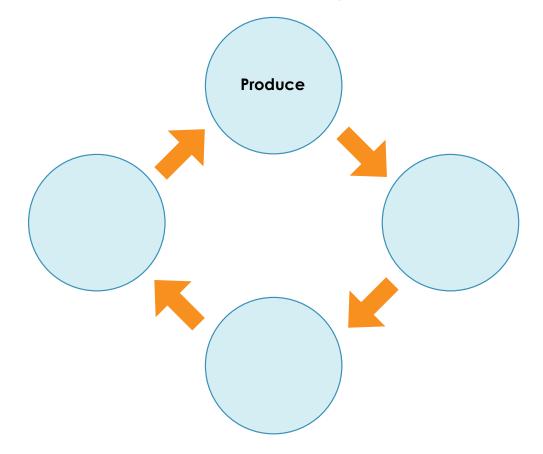

Semen

- 9. The fluid that protects and transports the sperm is known as _____
- 10. List the three glands (in order) that provide fluid to the sperm to create semen and what each does for the sperm during this process.

Purpose of the Male Reproductive System

11. The purpose of the male reproductive system involving sperm and semen is to:

Male Reproductive System

Diseases and Disorders of the Male Reproductive System

12. Complete the boxes that follow:

Erectile	The inability to get and keep an firm enough for sexual intercourse.
cancer	The most common cancer in males between the ages of
Testicular	Happens when a testicle rotates and twists the cord, causing severe pain and swelling.
disease	Due to scar tissue on the penis causing, painful erections.
Male infertility	Can be caused by low sperm, abnormal sperm, or that prevent the delivery of sperm.
cancer	One of the most types of cancer.

Caring for the Male Reproductive System

13. What are the three primary things males should do to care for their reproductive system?

Male Reproductive System

Testicular Self-Examination

14. Complete the following boxes showing the testicular self-examination steps:

